To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as confirmation of Mr. Jeremy Rottgen's work history at Atlantic.Net, a regional Internet service provider. Mr. Rottgen has interned with us as a freelancer/staff writer since June of this year. Specifically, he has worked on projects related to Surf, a portal for Atlantic.Net members.

During his time here, Mr. Rottgen's projects have included the following:

- Brainstorming story ideas for eight original content channels featured on the Surf portal, including Arts & Entertainment, Health & Wellness, and Travel & Leisure;
- Conceptualizing, researching, and writing more than a dozen original feature stories on topics ranging from how to make a record to teaching diversity;
- Writing articles for Surf's Up, Atlantic.Net's member newsletter;
- Writing articles for The Wave, Atlantic.Net's staff newsletter.

Besides meeting my basic expectations of interns — dependable, punctual, organized, professional — Jeremy is worthy of the endorsement and praise I reserve for the most talented students I have had the pleasure of knowing. He responds well to criticism, has a strong work ethic, and shows great dedication to the task at hand. I have no doubt that he will make a positive impact on any organization he chooses to join.

If you should require additional information about Mr. Rottgen's qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me at (352) 375-2912 ext. 4395 or iwoffe.staff@atlantic.net.

Sincerely,

Iris Wolfe
